Chapter 1 by lightningstrikesannah (I'm back!)

I ran until I could go no further. I sat on a tree stump and tried to catch my breath, but I couldn't. I felt like a fish out of the water, gasping for breath. When it seemed like I could not breathe anymore, and the world started to spin, a tall figure dressed in black stood in front of me. His scythe gleamed in the sunset, and the last thing I remember is him grabbing me and the world began to swirl around the two of us.

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

I could never win at this damned video game. Angrily, I threw my controller to the floor. Time for a review.

I grabbed my camera and positioned it in front on my bed. Making sure to wear one of my sponsored t-shirts was a little difficult; so many companies had sent me samples for business purposes that I had begun to forget which I had bought, which had been sent to me by fans, and which I had promised to wear.

Being a popular Youtube star was hard, as you can tell.
